Chapter 4. Indigent Person Not Required to Pay for Transcript on Appeal to Supreme Court or Court of Appeals

IC 33-1-4-1

Transcription of shorthand notes of evidence

Sec. 1. An indigent person desiring to appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the decision of any circuit court or criminal court in criminal cases, and not having sufficient means to procure the longhand manuscript or transcript of the evidence taken in shorthand, by the order or permission of any court, the court shall direct the shorthand reporter to transcribe the shorthand notes of evidence into longhand, as soon as practicable, and deliver the same to the indigent person. However, the court must be satisfied that the indigent person has not sufficient means to pay the reporter for making the longhand manuscript or transcript of evidence, and the reporter may charge such compensation as is allowed by law in such cases for making and furnishing a longhand manuscript, which service of the reporter shall be paid by the court out of the proper county treasury.
